Said Lord Bacon

"The uncertainties of life are in a great measure responsible for those predicaments which often the wisest cannot evade."

Perhaps our friend Bacon was right. But we're absolutely certain that there's no need of you getting into any predicament about that new Suit when the "H. & H." kind can be had.

If you'll just stop to examine or let us show you, you'll catch the idea in this little "spiel." A suit, you know, may look well and fit admirably, but if it lacks in linings, in interlinings and in the way it's put together, it's "all day" with that suit in a very short time.

That's where the "H. & H." Clothing excels.
